VOLUME NUMBER 97 — CAMERON, MILAM COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY JANUARY 17, 1957 — NO. 42

Local Firm's Bid Successful For $375,000 City Bond Issue

Most satisfying bid for the City of Cameron and one which was accepted at the meeting of the city council Tuesday night, January 15, was presented the citys governing body by Oxsheer Smith of The Citizens National Bank here.

There were a total of seven concerns presenting bids for purchase of the bonds, proceeds from which will be used for improving and extending water facilities in Cameron. The bonds have a total face value of $375,000 and were approved in an election held on September 29, 1956.

The bond issue as drawn up by the city provides for instruments in the issue to draw for the purchasers not more than five percent interest. Successful bidder for the bonds placed an interest rate of 3.70 and 4.25 percent against the city on the two series of these bonds. The city agrees to pay off the issue on a scaled maturity schedule which extends from 1963-1989 with one rate being charged on one series and the other on the second series.

By accepting the bid submitted by the local bank, the city will save $404 or a difference of .02 mills-rate over the next closest bidder.

Payment of the bonds will result in an increased water rate in the city. However, the bond issue makes it possible as explained by several members of the council for Cameron to at last have state approved water. Purchase of the bonds, it was pointed out during the meeting, by a local firm will also result in an economic advantage to the entire Cameron area.

Another phase of the Tuesday night meeting resulted in adoption of a resolution by the council under which city councilmen following the next city election will receive no salaries. It also cut the mayor's salary from 771 to 725 monthly. The resolution also does away with the charging of a filing fee for candidates seeking a seat on the council or the mayor's post.

Councilman Charles Brady, who introduced the resolution, said it "will not affect the candidates running for the council.

The motion to adopt the resolution was seconded by Councilmen Clifford Thompson. Other councilmen voting in favor of the resolution were Lincoln Mondrik and Roy Griffith. Councilman Grady Stidham cast the dissenting vote. It not being a tie vote among the councilmen, Mayor Robert Weems was not called upon to vote on the issue.

Fire Damages Trucking Line

Fire razed a truck shed at the Kirk Truck Lines headquarters early Sunday morning causing an estimated $45,000 damages according to John Eanes, city fire marshal.

Destroyed were five trucks and a trailer belonging to the company which is headed by Jesse Kirk, Jr. First alarm at the Cameron fire station was sounded about 2:10 a.m. Sunday and tires and other portions of the destroyed vehicles were still smoldering late Sunday afternoon.

Starting inside the truck shed, it was reported that cause of the blaze was possibly a short in wiring of one of the vehicles. Some damage was also done to the shed in which the trucks were parked.

Partial insurance coverage was held by the company on the damaged property.

Each year the railroads perform the equivalent of hauling 10 tons of freight for every person in the US.

Poll Tax Payments Far Below '56 Level

Payment of poll taxes for the present year in Cameron and Milam County are only 28.4 and 30.9 percent respectively of payments for 1956. Both city and county officials pointed out that the deadline for payment is January 31.

Valter White, Milam County tax collector, said Tuesday he urges every citizen to pay this tax. He pointed out that while on the county and state levels there may be no major elections, there may be called elections on bond issues and a possible election on any number of other issues.

The county collector said poll tax payments at his office in the Milam County Courthouse thus far in 1957 has amounted to only 1,664. This is compared to 5,478 payments during 1956. Poll tax receipts are also being issued in Thorndale and Rockdale during the month of January and those issued in those two towns are not included in the number reported by White on Tuesday.

Payment of City of Cameron poll tax had been made by only 300 persons as of Saturday morning, January 12, according to City Secretary, Wayne Wieser. This is compared with a total of 1,056 made in the past year.

Both City Secretary Wieser and County Tax Collector White expressed the need of payment of this particular tax by all citizens truly interested in taking a party in the various government agencies whether they be city, school district, county, state or national in character.

Legion Board Meets

Members of the executive board of the American Legion post in Cameron will hold a meeting at 7:30 p.m .Thursday night, January 17.

The meeting will be held at the Citizens Barber Shop.

BUSINESS RUSHING:-On one of the final days of distributing, the lines at the storage room for surplus foods were still extending into the streets. During the distribution in January, 65,000 pounds of such foods were given to needy and destitute persons within Milam County. The distribution is the first of surplus foods to be given out in Milam and was slow this month in being distributed as members of the local State Welfare Agency had to prepare and present eligible persons with identification cards.

Texas Railroads Pay $36,166 Taxes In Co.

Texas railroads paid $36,166 in 1955 in taxes to Milam county according to the Texas Railroad Association.

That amount was Milam countys share of the $9,244,570 the railroads paid throughout the state.

In addition of course, was the large total in taxes the railroads more than 50,000 employees contributed on their own property. The vast majority of railroad workers, many of whom live in Milam county, own their own homes.

The largest railroad contribution in Milam county was for the support of education. The school tax for 1955 totaled $21,468.

City and village taxes amounted to $2,737, while the share of the county government's operating expenses paid for by the railroads totaled $5,645. The road and bridge fund gained $5,990 from the railroads in 1955. All other taxes brought the total for Milam county to $36,166.

"I am glad to note that nearly half of the taxes paid by the railroads, $4,161,052, went for the support of Texas schools," said Kenneth McCalla, general counsel for the Texas Railroad Association. "Now, more than ever, the future of our country and state depends upon the education of our youth. Many of our railroads recognize this fact and, in addition to contributing toward education with tax money, have made numerous scholarships available."

Rainfall Totals 20.14" In '56

With only traces of rain having been received in Milam County areas since the first of the current year, Water Superintendent Alvin Hefft Tuesday announced total rainfall for 1956 as having been 20.14 inches here.

Hefft said of this total, 6.13 inches were received during the last quarter of 1956. A breakdown of the final three months rainfall shows 1.59 inches for December, 2.02 inches for November and 2.52 inches for October.

Camerons water superintendent further stated that normal average of rain in this area is about 33 inches more or less.

March Of Dimes Volunteers Seek To Top 1956 Collections Of $9600

Cameron workers are seeking to top last year's March of Dimes campaign total of $9,600 during this month's fund-raising campaign.

Businessmen and National Guardsmen will be stationed on two main intersections Saturday, January 19. Contributions will be solicited from pedestrians and cars stopped for traffic lights from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Volunteers from Rotary Club, Lions Club, Kiwanis Club, and 36 National Guardsmen will compose the Bucket Brigade. Richard Mosely is organization chairman.

Mrs. Hilliard S. Thomas is heading the Mothers' March Against Polio which will be from 6 to 7 o'clock Monday night, January 21. The Cameron mothers will distribute literature on the Salk vaccine.

Some of the money collected during the campaign will go to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, but much will remain here for use by the Milam County chapter.

The four objectives of the NFIP are maximum therapy for those already stricken with polio, prevention of polio through the expansion of the Salk vaccine program, training of more professional workers and continued research.

Teenagers of Cameron have already contributed over $225 to the campaign through their activities. A dance, proceeds to go to the March of Dimes, will be held Friday night at the Country Club.

John Dodson Leaves Cameron Police Staff

Night Patrolman John Dodson of the Cameron Police Force turned in his resignation effective after January 15. He had been with the force and the city for a number of years as patrolman and night watchman.

Replacement for Dodson is George McCall, who was formerly with the city police force. McCall is well known in Cameron and according to Police Chief Willie Dolan is also well qualified for police work.

The new patrolmans experience in law enforcement includes service with a special ranger attachment during which time he served along the Texas-Mexico border with a large oil company.

New City Patrol Car Now Here

Cameron Police Chief Willie Dolan announced Tuesday, January 15, that the special patrol car has been delivered as of that date to Hefley-Stedman Motor Company here.

Upon delivery, the shop crew of the local Ford dealer began immediately to ready the vehicle for police duty. The car is an eight-cylinder specially constructed Ford for police use.

Chief Dolan said upon delivery to his department of the vehicle and following installation of the short-wave radio unit, siren, seat covers and signal lights, the car would go into immediate action to enforce traffic and city laws within the city.

First Aid Meeting To Be Held By Boy Scouts In Rockdale

Texas District of the Heart O' Texas Council of the Boy Scouts of America will hold their annual Boy Scout First Aid Meet on february 25 at 8:00 p.m. at the American Legion Building in Rockdale.

This announcement was made by Dr. J. M. Brown of Marlin, the Tejas District Health and Safety chairman.

Last year the First Aid Meet was won by Troop 35 of the Marlin Methodist Church under the leadership of Scoutmaster Enos Lumpkin and they will be out to win the trophy again.

The first aid meet will deal with problems that are covered by the second class and first class first aid requirements as outlined in the Boy Scout Handbook.

Members of the Tejas District Health and Safety Committee under the leadership of Dr. Brown will be judges for the meet.

It is expected that every Boy Scout Troop in Tejas District will enter a first aid team in this meet. Details will be sent to every scoutmaster in the near future.

Rank Of Esquire Conferred Here

Milam Lodge No. 125, Knights of Pythias, conferred the rank of Esquire on three candidates Monday night, January 14.

The candidates upon whom the honor was bestowed were Dr. W. R. Newton, Jr., John Calvin Markham and Malcolm Cass. All are of Cameron.

Rank of Knight will be conferred upon the same three candidates at the next meeting of the lodge which will be held Monday night, January 21. At this meeting two outstanding state officers of Knights of Pythias have been invited to attend and speak. They are Sam Knox of Bryan and John Haygood of Weatherford.

There were 27 members of Lodge No. 125 present at the meeting Monday night.

The railroads handled 4,612,000,000 (billion) letters and parcels for Uncle Sam during the 1956 holiday season. That's 50,000 standard mail cars full.

Milam ASC Group Attends Meeting

Mrs. J. Bruce Duncan of Waco, Dr. H. D. Smith of Marlin and C. E. Rittersbacher of Corsicana were elected directors for District 12 of the American Cancer Society at the districts annual meeting January 8, 1957 at the Kyle Hotel in Temple.

More than sixty cancer leaders from the 16 counties comprising District 12 attended the meeting.

Official delegates from Milam County included Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Smith, O. E. Menke, Mrs. Seth N. Corley and Mrs. Norma M. Wilson.

The day long session, stated Dr. E. O. Smith, was designed to increase the effectiveness of cancer control in our area by providing volunteers with vital advance information on how to carry out such a program through organization, service, education and crusade.

Delegates learned that if present rates continue, more than 40,000,000 Americans now living will die of cancer, Dr. John McKenney stated.

Heavy emphasis was placed on intensifying volunteer efforts in the annual April education fund raising crusade since the need for funds to exploit new fields of research and implement present research are increasing.

Although, primarily due to the American Cancer Society program of education, one-third of all persons developing cancer are being saved through early diagnosis and treatment, the ACS spokesman said, over one-half could be saved if they learned and followed the advice of the American Cancer Society.

The other half who die from the disease must wait on the results of continued and sustained research—the only hope we have of finding the final answer to the riddle to cancer.

Cameron Relays Set For Mar. 23

Yoe High School will play hosts at the 22nd running of the annual Cameron Relays on March 23 according to an announcement this week by Head Coach Leo Jackson.

This event since its inception has become one of the outstanding track meets for schoolboy spiked shoe enthusiasts according to track coaches in all of Central Texas. As pointed out by local track coaches, such was indicated in the 1956 Cameron Relays at which time 50 high schools were represented with between 600 and 700 high school track stars participating.

The Wee Hours

By Your Police Reporter

Night Chief of Police Brandy Brandenburg was at the police station late upon a recent night working to remove a shell that had become jammed in a .410 gauge shotgun for a local party, who had missed a rabbit because of the jamming.

It was while undertaking this chore that a business man entering and seeing what the chief was doing left the building. A few minutes later, he again entered and dropped a lit firecracker, small but loud.

Consequence of the following explosion was an amazed and astounded chief for whom it will be many a day before he will ever fail to follow all recommended precautions concerning the handling of firearms.

REMODELING AND RENOVATION of the Cameron Herald is currently underway. Shown above is Monroe Marek and George Jones, who for the past weekend retired from the composing room to take paint brush in hand and continue the facelifting. Work accomplished thus far includes lowering of the ceiling in the front offices, installation of a wall separating the shop from the office section and painting of the walls.

National Guard Unit Here Holds Annual Fedral Inspection

ANNUAL FEDRAL INSPECTION of Milam County's National Guard Unit is being made as of Wednesday, January 9. Shown above is Major Eliot C. Chaudoin as he inspects a squad of the local Battery C, 649th Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion. The inspection is being made by Maj. Chaudoin on behalf of Lt. Gen. John H. Collier, commanding general of the Fourth Army with headquarters at Fort Sam Houston. The local battery was presented with a silver certificate for a rating of excellent in efficiency for training during the past year.

Milam County National Guard Unit, Battery C, 649th Anti-aircraft Artillery Battalion, received its annual Federal inspection last Wednesday, January 9.

During the evening drill period, the unit was presented with a Silver Certificate for efficiency in training during the past year. The presentation by Major Eliot O. Chaudoin, the I G inspecting officer, was made on behalf of Lt. Gen. John H. Collier, commanding general of the Fourth Army, Fort Sam Houston. The Silver Certificate is for a rating of excellent.

The presentation was only one of the highlights of the drill period. Major Chaudoin inspected the Guardsmen in ranks earlier in the period and asked numerous questions about their training and job assignments in the Battery. He examined the unit's records and equipment during the afternoon.

Although Major Chaudoin did not indicate his findings during the inspection, it is believed that he was well pleased with the appearance and training of the battery. He will submit a written report in the near future.

MODERN HOMEMAKING

RECIPES . . . HOUSEHOLD HELPS

By Julia Hunter

HOME ECONOMICS DIRECTOR, LONE STAR GAS COMPANY

After so much holiday cooking, meals easy to prepare are in demand. A meal cooked entirely in the oven means easy preparation and less dishwashing, since foods cook and go on the table in the same dishes. Less time in the kitchen, too, for all the foods cook in the same length of time; just place them in the oven and forget them until the end of cooking time.

Determine time and temperature for an oven meal by the meat dish (or any dish requiring exact temperature and time.) While certain times and temperatures are often specified, vegetables will bake or steam in the oven at various times and temperatures.

Once you've tried your hand at planning oven meals you'll work out many menus. Here's one to begin with: Crunchy Oven Chicken, Parmesan Cauliflower, Baked Sweet Potatoes, Vegetable Salad Mold, Hot French Bread and Rosy Pears.

Place one 10-ounce package of frozen cauliflower in a one-quart baking dish with a quarter teaspoon of salt, cover and bake in a moderate gas oven (375 degrees F.) for one hour. Drain. Combine and serve over hot cauliflower four tablespoons of melted butter and two tablespoons of Paremesan cheese. Serve at once. Makes four servings.

Scrub, dry and rub lightly with shortening four large sweet potatoes. Place the potatoes on a small cookie sheet, in a pie pan or directly on the oven rack. Bake in moderately hot gas oven (375 degrees F.) one hour.

If your family likes a fruit dessert, here's a "peach" of a pear recipe: Peel four large pears, leaving stems, and place them in a shallow baking dish. Combine one-third sugar, one-third cup water, three tablespoons lemon juice and a few drops red food coloring, bring to a boil and pour over pears. Now bake the pears, uncovered, in a moderately hot gas over (375 degrees F.) one hour.

For additional information on oven meals, send a postcard to the Home Economics Department Lone Star Gas Company, Room 601 at 301 South Harwood, Dallas 1, Texas.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

CRUNCHY OVEN CHICKEN: Melt over low gas flame one-half-cup butter or margarine; combine two cups crushed potato chips with one-fourth-teaspoon garlic salt and a dash pepper. Dip in melted butter or margarine and then in potato chip mixture one two and one half-three-pound frying chicken, disjointed. Place pieces, skin side up, so that they do not touch in a greased shallow baking pan. Bake, uncovered, in a moderately hot gas oven (375 degrees F.) one hour. Do not turn. Makes four servings.

Yoe High Homemaking Students Cover Class Problems Of Reality

SURPRISED when her homemaking students at Yoe High School turned the regular lab period into a "party lab" recently, Mrs. Patsy Edmonds was feted by the students recently. This is one of many phases of a program in Cameron schools today under which students receive education in the arts but also in practical experience.

PROOF OF THE PUDDING: Girls in the Yoe homemaking classes give positive proof the "fun" of a gala party continues even with the aftermath during which they must wash the dishes and scrub pots and pans. Such was the occurrance following a recent "party lab" of their class. Those above shown doing the dishes are Mary Edna Bowley, Fran Malone, Sereaphina Wohleb, Nancy Buchanan, Betty Butler, Emily Jedlicka, Gere Kostroun and Genevieve Kostroun.

Girls in homemaking classes at Yoe High School receive their instructions on a timely basis as was illustrated just before their Christmas holidays. In a special lab hour, they honored their teacher, Mrs. Patsy Edmonds, with an anniversary party.

Lesson on this particular day concerned party treats, decorations and entertainment. Called a "party lab" by the students, they took pride in this assignment, having themselves prepared all refreshments, arranged entertainment and installed decorations for the living room's Christmas motif.

The group was reportedly filled with pride in the manner with which they cleaned the kitchen and living room following the party.

Those present at the party besides the honoree were Nancy Buchanan, Pat Matula, Gere Kostroun, Sandra Smith, Becky Terry, Emily Jedlicka, Mary Edna Bowley, Sereaphina Wohleb, Sharon Swanzy, Betty Butler, Genevieve Kostroun, Jeannette Richter, Mary Amaya, Patricia Janek, Fran Malone, Fay Mathews and Dolores Zajicek.

Teachers of the group report the girls very capable in serving as hostesses of a party and say that they seemingly are eagerly looking forward to the next period of lab instruction.

Cameron Women At Water Meet

Three women from Cameron are among those invited to attend the Texas Women's Forum on Water at Mary Hardin-Baylor College February 9. The one-day meeting will include two daytime panels and a dinner meeting.

The forum will be sponsored by Mary Hardin-Baylor College and the Brazos River Authority jointly to explore the present and potential water shortage. Water experts of the state will explain the water problem in terms of family life and relate possible solutions for it in terms of what the state and its agencies must do.

Cameron women who have been invited to attend are Mrs. Henry M. Hefley, 1101 E. 18th street; Mrs. Roberta Bowling, 1410 N. Cleveland, and Mrs. Jeff T. Kemp, 302 N. Travis.

Oven 50 Navy ships have been named for enlisted men.

Miss Junek Weds Eugene J. Jistel

Miss Annie Mae Junek became the bride of Eugene James Jistel in St. Monica Catholic Church Tuesday, January 1, at 2:30 p.m. Rev. George Duda officiated at the afternoon ceremony.

Attired in a winter white princess style dress with black accessories and white carnation corsage, the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Jistel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Junek of Cameron. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jistel of Cameron, is a 1947 graduate of Yoe High School and for the past four years has been employed with the Giffort and Hill Construction Company in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Jistel have made their home in Wilmer.

Mrs. Eugene Jistel Party Honoree Jan. 6

Mrs. Eugene Jistel, the former Miss Annie Mae Junek, was honoree at a miscellaneous shower given Sunday, January 6, in the home of Mrs. Alvin Eisfeldt.

Hostesses for the event were Miss Catherine Krenek, Miss Mae Eisfeldt and Mrs. Harding Rummel.

Miss Krenek and Miss Eisfeldt presented gifts to the bride. Miss Krenek also presided at the bride's book.

Laid with a white linen, hand-painted table cloth, the dining table was set before a background of white candles. Refreshments of party sandwiches, potatoe chips, cake, candy and punch were served the 40 guests, who registered.

The Navy employs German Shepherd dogs to help guard more than two million dollars worth of government motor vehicles and equipment at the Naval Air Station, Miramar, California. Previously, thefts amounted to more than $2,000 a month but after the dogs began acting as guards, the loss decreased to zero dollars. It costs an average of only $15 a month to care for one of these dogs, including food and medical care.

It is estimated that since it takes 14 ounces of pressure to strike a typewriter key, an average Navy Yeoman's daily workload is the equivalent of lifting 378,000 ounces, 23,625 pounds or 11½ tons a day.

SAFE DRIVERS SAVE $...if a bill now before the Legislature is passed. That bill is a flexible rating law for casualty (including automobile insurance).

Many economically-operated insurance companies are in a position to charge rates substantially lower than those of companies with more expensive types of operation.

Thus, it will mean that the insurance buyer can shop around and get the best buy for his insurance dollar--something he cannot now do.

More importantly, it will mean that the careful drivers will no longer have to subsidize the careless driver.

Rural Civil Defense Plans Forthcoming

Officials of the Federal Civil Defense Administration are broading its program for civil defense plans designed to assure survival of 55,000,000 rural area citizens in this nation including those in Milam County.

Courses are forthcoming for rural civil defense planning. Such courses are designed primarily for county and rural area civil defense directors. These will emphasize the vital support role which those living in Milam County and other areas removed from the nation's potential target cities would be expected to play in the event of an attack on the United States.

A civil defense coordinator was in Cameron last week at which time he announced he would return within about two weeks. It is expected he will at that time begin organization of civil defense within Cameron and Milam County under the new phase of the administration's program.

This new course will feature a briefing on strategic civil defense problems. It will detail our possible enemies' potential for attack and the possible nature and scope of such an attack.

Threat of radioactive fallout, capable of being carried to rural areas hundreds of miles downwind from the point of explosion, will also be stressed. Under current plans of training to be inaugurated for Milam County rural areas will be discussion of defense against atomic, biological and chemical warfare aimed at animals and crops.

Situations emphasizing agricultural production, processing and distribution problems in the post-attack and rehabilitation periods will also come under the new rural training.

Peggy Elaine Gallup Born January 4

Mr. and Mrs. William Gallup of Holyoak, Massachusetts are the proud parents of a little daughter born Friday, January 4, in a Massachusetts hospital.

Weighing 7 lbs. 10 ozs. at birth, the child was named Peggy Elaine.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanel of Cameron and Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss Gallup of Holyoak, Massachusetts.

Mrs. Gallup will be remembered as the former Miss Joan Hanel of Cameron.

Drouth Slows Field Work Here

Soil moisture for the week ending Friday, Januarty 11, was dry for all types of field work. At the same time winter grain and clover were in need of a good rain.

J. D. Moore, Milam agricultural agent, said some county stockmen are now grazing oats. de pointed out that recovery for the crop after the present grazing would be slow under the present weather conditions.

"General livestock situation," Moore added, "will remain critical until good rains come for grazing and stock water."

The county agent said that as of the present there are two fields of commercial cabbage and both are reported to be making satisfactory progress.

Jerry And His Sweetie

Smiles across the sugar bowl: Jerry Lewis and his wife, Patti, enjoy a coffee break in the dinette of their California home. The boy with the boundless energy is devoted to these pleasant pauses in the day's activities, especially when he is busy with rehearsals. He says that little between-meal snacks—nutritionists now call them scientific nibbles—have proved an effective means of keeping his energy up without pushing his weight up, too. Since sugar converts into energy faster than any other food, its place in the scientific nibble is an essential one. Besides, sugar makes any snack tastier, doesn't it? Jerry, by the way, will soon be seen in Paramount's VistaVision motion pictur " Delicate Delinquent."

Have Fun At Your Own Party

Of course, you like to entertain friends in your home. But be honest with yourself. Do you really enjoy your own parties?

You don't, if you're a harried hostess who runs an evening-long marathon between kitchen and recreation room in a frantic effort to make those special hot canapes and get them served while they're still hot!

Why not stop running – and still collect compliments for serving "the best hot hors d'oeuvres in town"? It's easy, according to General Electric's portable appliance department, if you move your electric skillet and new toaster-oven right onto the party scene. Use them for quick-and-easy preparation of tiny meatballs and cocktail frankfurters (in the skillet) and melted cheese goodies on crackers or toast (in the drawer of the toaster-oven). Serve the canapes piping hot right from the appliances. Your guests will love them—and you'll have fun at your own party!

New Hawaiian Treats

Here's a quick simple way of bringing the color and flavor of another land to your dinner table. Sliced pineapple and perky maraschino cherries in whipped cream add a bright note of flavor to a cookie-like coconut round base in making these new Hawaiian Treats.

Use either plain or chocolate-covered coconut rounds from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department. Plan on one for each serving. Divide each into three parts. Top with whipped cream and fruits, and provide a touch of party greenery with a mint leaf.

Hawaiian Treats

- 4 plain or chocolate covered coconut rounds
- ½ cup whipping cream
- 1 tablespoon powdered sugar
- 4 slices pineapple, drained and cut into thirds
- 8 maraschino cherries, cut into sixths
- Mint leaves
- ½ teaspoon vanilla

Cut coconut rounds into 3 pie-shaped wedges. Combine cream, vanilla, sugar, and milk. Whip until stiff. Top each wedge with a generous spoonful of whipped cream. Stand a piece of pineapple upright, curved side up, in whipped cream. Decorate wedges with cherry slices. Arrange 3 wedges, slightly separated, on dessert plates. Garnish with mint leaves. Serves 4.

A Tribute -- To Our Firemen!

When fire breaks out at four o'clock in the morning, your alert hook-and-ladder guardians are instantly on the job. Heroically, and ofttimes tragically, these brave men in helmets think only of YOU, your family, and the protection of your property. The Fireman is an integral part of our City Government. He must be always physically fit. He must respond without hesitation at the clang of the bell. Night and day, summer and winter, he must be on call to fight the flames and scale the towering ladder. He is a man of ACTION, upon whom all of us depend. We salute his bravery and commend his faithfulness!

Water, Conserve It . . .

Most important natural resource of Milam County and of any other area is the soil upon which items needed for our basic needs of food, shelter and clothing are produced. Yet, even the soil cannot produce without enough water.

Drouth in Milam County has been in existence for several years now. Agricultural production depends upon moisture, and our Lord is still the only being able to produce rain. Thus the future of Milam ranchers and farmers depends upon their making complete use of every bit of moisture available and especially in these times of drouth.

Upon receipt of rains in this area, everyone must make every effort to conserve all moisture received. Aid of the Soil Conservation Service is available for this need. Organizations of farmers, ranchers and land owners in different sections of the county are work- for water control districts to further the use of water in this area for all needs.

Thus to those members of the proposed Elm Creek Water Conservation and Control Districts and those of the proposed Brushy Creek District, we again offer our congratulations for their efficient work in bettering conditions in Milam County.

O

Our Future In Livestock . . .

Preliminary plans have been compleded for an annual Junior Livestock Show to be held at the Mitchan Auto Lot on February 16. Success of this event is very important to the future of Cameron and Milam County.

Every section of Texas was known for its production of livestock long before oil and gas took over as the "big" source of revenue for Texans. Cattle was driven into Texas by the Spaniards over 400 years ago. Since that time they have developed from a scrawny breed of animal to those weighing better than a ton. And every ounce of those present day tons is choice meats.

Gas and oil may someday be replaced by energy derived from our solar system. Cotton and other fabric producing farm crops may be replaced by textiles derived from other sources.

However, mankind will always need food for survival. Chemicals may be used in the future to provide the vitamins and other needs which we get in food. They can never replace the tastiness of beefsteak. The future of the World depends upon high quality meats produced in Milam and other counties of the greatest livestock producing state in the nation.

O

Poll Tax-A Privilege . . .

With the approach of the final date for payment of city, school, county, state and federal taxes, not one of the otherwise eligible voters should fail to pay his or her city and state poll taxes.

Those, who fail to pay this one type of tax and thus becomes ineligible to cast their ballot in any election, have no moral right to complain of any person elected nor of any law or ordinance enacted by public voice. Failure to take part in an election takes away future ethical rights to criticize your government.

Time to get action of your particular choice is on the day of elections. Voice your opinions in the form of a ballot. To do this you must pay your poll tax.

Payment of a poll tax is not nearly so much a cost of your liberties and freedom as it is of the acceptance and true expression of a privilege available nowhere else in the entire world.

O

Help Banish Polio . . .

Milam County March of Dimes is currently underway to raise funds sufficient to handle local rehabilitation needs. Last official report is of 21 persons within the county in need of medical or rehabilitation assistance.

This year just ended was the first during which the county was with funds enough to care for their own without aid from the national foundation. Such should be the case each year which makes 1957 a year of greater needs by the MOD. There are currently 21 persons in Milam County suffering from the crippling influence of infantile paralysis, and annual cost of assistace to these will amount to more than $10,000 as estimated by county officials.

It is highly possible for Salk vaccine and other medications and treatment to make polio a disease of past ages.

Such is not now the case. Progress to this time has been largely due to financial aid from MOD drives. Now that the goal of perfection is in sight, 1957 is a year in which donations are urgently needed to further completion of the goal.

Your assistance should be as great as is within your power to give. Give with the realization that within not too many years, MOD drives will be an item of only historical facts.

"THE FLOWER THEREOF FALLETH AWAY"

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER ISN'T SURPRISED PRICES GOING UP SAYS THEY ALWAYS HAVE, ALWAYS WILL

Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Little River seems about half serious this week, although you never can tell.

Dear editar:

I was talking to a bunch of my neighbors sitting around a stove in town yesterday afternoon and they were concerned over the high cost of living.

Furthermore, one of them said, he'd read the day before where the kind of national economy we are living in requires prices to keep edging up a little, if they stopped they might start falling and that might bring on deflation and a depression, and that everybody might as well get set to see prices continue to go up a little each year from now on, maybe for the next 50 years at least.

This made everybody feel gloomy, except me. It wasn't news to me that the cost of living may continue to go up. It's been going up every since I can remember.

The man who in his early days was making $90 a month and figured as he could just raise it to $100 he could get by comfortably, is now making say $400 a month and figuring if he could stretch it to $500 he could get by comfortably. The same applies regardless of the bracket you used to be in and are in now.

Anybody who hasn't discovered it costs more to get born, more to stay healthy, more to get educated, more to stay clothed, more to get entertained, more to stay in business, more to retire on, more to die on, more to get buried on, more to have your will executed and your property divided among children who will find it wasn't enough to put them where they wanted to be, just hasn't been around for the last 25 years.

Understand, I wouldn't want to go back to the old days where a man was considered well off as he didn't have to ride bareback and owned a new well rope, but the idea that you can find some way to hold your income up and your costs down, that you will be able to find somebody to sell you beans in a cellophane bag for the same price you could grow and store them yourself in a towsack in the old days, is hopeless.

In other words, it's an uphill flight, but it always has been and always will be, except maybe in my case. I've done most of my fighting on level ground. You can rest better that way.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

STORY NO. 3

Mexican Border Troubles of 1915-17 Hatched in Parr Capital, San Diego

By--FREDERICK HODGSON

SAN DIEGO, TEX.--Like his father, George Berham Parr is a small man as Texans go. In him there is a curious touch of Pancho Villa, or Robin Hood.

A psychologist could explain Parr much better than I can explain his sometimes baffling behavior.

Unlike his father, George Parr is trigger-tempered, often to the point of rashness. For example, there is the incident of a few weeks ago when a Duval County commissioner, Tomas H. Molina, angered him. Parr grabbed a rifle and raged out of his office and into the Courthouse across the street, shouting for Molina. He was cornered in the basement by Ranger Walter Russel and disarmed.

Parr's white hair is dyed red, a mahogany red. In contrast to both the "Anglos" and the Latins, he always dresses neatly in a business suit. He is deep-tanned, soft spoken and there is much about him that is charming—and disarming. He lives high and, among other things, loves fast horses and bull fights.

"And he won't listen to anybody," one of his top lawyers told me. "If he'd listen to his attorneys when they flash a red light on him he wouldn't get into half as much trouble."

George Parr, age 55, is a lawyer himself although his only client is George B. Parr.

I watched Parr on the night of the July 28 primaries. The polls were just about to close when I talked to him. He was a very busy man, issuing orders right and left in rapid Spanish, giving followers crisp green bills and sending them on errands. He seemed harassed, even wistful. The scene was the Mexican-style plaza in front of the church of San Paulo.

Parr's people, hundreds of them, milled around in the dusk under the trees. Across the street from the Parr forces was anti-Parr headquarters—and between the two groups armed Texas Rangers under Captain Alfred Allee moved quietly. The atmosphere was tense and electric. San Diego police, often called Parr's pistoleros, under Chief Manual Amaya, circulated through the two groups, guns slapping against their thighs. The street in front of the City Hall, across the plaza from the church, had been roped off by the Rangers.

I was watching Parr when the soft bell of the angelus rang from the Church of San Paulo. He stopped talking and stood quite still. Around him his people became silent. Hats came off. Here and there a woman lifted her mantilla, nun-like, over her dark hair.

The last echo of the Angelus had long gone when the spell was broken by juke box music from a candy store.

It was difficult just then to imagine San Diego, Texas, as the hottest spot in Texas politics, as the scene of plundering, of murder—sixty three murders in just over a dozen years according to Attorney General John Ben Shepperd.

Yet the story of San Diego, of the Parrs and of Duval is on the record. Beside my typewriter as this is written is a long list, three foolscap pages, of men and women who met sudden death in Duval in recent years. Duval from the first has been a county of violence. The man whose name the county bears, Capt. Burr H. Duval, was massacred with Fannin's men at Goliad.

That frightening list of homicides, most of them unsolved and unpunished, might be doubled if the truth were known about many cases listed officially as suicide or accident.

For example, the death of Border Patrolman Ed Wheeler was first listed as accidental. Wheeler was, to use his own words, "about to blow the lid off Duval" in a narcotics report when his car went off the road and his body was found in the flaming wreck. Then the undertaker found a small bullet hole at the base of his skull.

Just for the record here are a few of the cases officially on the books as homicide:

Horacio Garza, knifed to death in San Diego; Jacinto Gutierrez, shot, San Diego; Ricardo Escobar, shot, Freer; Juan Elizondo, shot, Benavides; Rolando Ruiz, shot, San Diego; John F. Gilbert, shotgun, Freer; Thomas Banks, shotgun, Freer; Rodolfo Munoz, shot, San Diego; Guy Hastings, shot, Freer; Frank Lotto, shot, San Diego . . . but why go on!

There is nothing on the record to show that these murders were political. Certainly the wanton slaying on September 9, 1952, of Jacob Floyd, Jr., was political. So were the killings of radio newsman Bill Mason and of Edwin Wheeler.

Assistant Attorney General Sidney Chandler puts it this way:

"Before Shepperd came here, if a man committed a crime in Duval, including murder, it depended on which side of the fence he was on whether he got punished or not. The evidence didn't matter. It was how the jury voted. If the machine wanted you acquitted, you were acquitted.

"It worked another way, too. If a man killed another man, in a fit of temper or for any other reason, and he was acquitted, then the machine could count on his loyalty and the loyalty of his family from then on."

No matter how the figures for violent death in Duval are interpreted, one fact is grimly clear: they are far higher than the national average. The suicide rate, for example, is more than four times that for the United States as a whole—and Latins, being Catholic, do not commit suicide. The Mexican-American is intensely religious and to him suicide is a mortal sin, punishable by an eternity of damnation.

It was just forty-one years ago, January 20, 1915, when George Berham Parr was in his 'teens, that a man named Basilio Ramos, age 24, was arrested in McAllen, Texas, with a copy of the utterly fantastic "El Plano de San Diego" on his person. Ramos, alias Garza, promptly became a celebrity and the Federal Government moved fast to take over jurisdiction.

The plan was for revolution against the United States.

In San Diego today they'll show you the sun-blistered building where the plan was hatched in August, 1914, and they'll tell you of the furtive comings and goings of mysterious Germans, supposedly agents of the Imperial General Staff in Berlin.

The San Diego plot wasn't taken too seriously at the time, but in 1917 when the famous Zimmermann note, a document that helped put the United States into World War I, was intercepted astonished officials in Washington suddenly realized that the plan was real and not the product of raving crackpots. The mysterious strangers who conferred in San Diego with Mexican-Americans and with Huerta agents from Mexico were what they seemed to be.

Huerta, it will be remembered, was violently anti-American because President Wilson had refused to recognize his "government by assassination." Americans had captured Vera Cruz and Marine snipers had killed many Mexicans. Feelings ran high on both banks of the Rio Grande.

Under the plan Mexicans in five states—Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado and California—were to revolt on February 20, 1915, and declare an independent Mexican republic. A "liberating" Army would then "free" six states to the north and set up a Negro republic as a buffer state. All "Anglo" men—except Germans—were to be killed.

The whole insane idea from Germany's point of view was to keep the United States so busy on the Mexican border that she'd be unable to join the Allies in fighting the Central Powers in Europe.

Certainly the plan was mad and just as certainly it did have part of the effect the plotters wanted. The border area, including Duval, seethed with excitement and killings, with raids from both sides of the Rio Grande, with train robberies and the flames of burning ranch houses. More than 500 Americans lost their lives in the fighting before General Pershing and his troops restored a semblance of order.

A curious fact in the border troubles just preceding America's entrance into World War I was the deference paid to the word "Aleman"—German—by parties of raiding Mexicans. More than one "Anglo" saved his life by proclaiming himself "Aleman" when guns were leveled at his head.

It is against this background that the Parr political empire was erected and it is against this background that it still lives, tottering on its last leg under the continual legal slugging of Attorney General Shepperd, but still alive.

Sharp Mustangs Win Tournament

Thinly clads of Sharp High School won the invitational tournament at Thorndale High School on January 10, 11 and 12. There were 12 teams entered in the basketball meet.

Sharp took their first game with ease as they rollled over the Elgin High School quintet 46-29. In their semi-final game, the Sharp five came from behind in the closing minutes of the game and nosed out the Dime Box quintet by 44-42.

Sharp Mustangs in the finals defeated Thorndale by 45-38 to take first place honors.

Coach Sherman Mayfield of the Sharp team had one member of his team to place on the all-tournament team. The one was Dennis Shelton.

Local Quintet Drop West Game

Yoemen last Tuesday night on the local court dropped a non-district game to the West quintet by a score of 70-56. High point man for the game, however, was Ray Green, who accounted for 22 points.

Green tossed nine field goals for 18 tallies and four free tosses. Sharpshooter for the local thinly clads, Green game is representative of the local players as they go into the game as underdogs but never give up hope. Such is proven by the fact that trailing at halftime when the score was 33-18, Green led his team in the second half by accounting for 10 points in the third quarter and 5 in the final period after the game seemingly had become hopeless to the fans in the stands.

Other Yoemen accounting for scores during the game were Arthur Marak with 10; Gene Hillman, 7; Bobby Elliott, 2, and Charles Baring, 7.

Performing during the game for the local squad besides those racking up scores were Josey and Johnny Solomon.

The "B Yoemen broke their losing streak in the preliminary game with the West "B" squad as they nosed their opponents out by a score of 29-23.

Cameron's second string held the score to a 4-4 tie during the first period and went out into the front by 9-8 at half time. A close game throughout the 48 minutes of action, the margin of difference in scoring between the two quintets never exceeded four points.

High point man in the game was Josey of the Cameron squad.

Cameron DAV Has 26 Members

Cameron Chapter No. 18 of the Disabled American Veterans has surpassed its membership quota for the current fiscal year of the organization and will receive a special citation in recognition of its achievement. As of January 1, the chapter had a total of 26 members.

Announcement of the award was made by Joseph F. Burke, of Bayonne, N. J., DAV National Commander, who commended officers and members of the chapter for its work in behalf of disabled veterans.

Commander Burke said in a message sent from DAV National Headquarters in Cincinnati:

"Most disabled veterans are adjusted to their physical handicaps and learning to live with them, but it is vital that they band together to protect this nation's rehabilitation program.

"We know that the war handicapped wants the right to live and raise his family in as nearly a normal way as possible and contribute his share to his community.

Generally speaking, American veterans who have been wounded, gassed, injured or disabled while serving in the armed forces of the United States in America's wars, are eligible for DAV membership. This eligibility includes, in addition to World War I veterans, those who have served in the armed forces at any time between December 7, 1951, and the conclusion of the Korean campaign.

Range management demonstrations conducted last year under the supervision of local county agents involved 3,469,105 acres of Texas rangelands and because of the improved practices used, increased the returns or savings to the ranchmen by approximately four and a quarter million dollars, say extension range specialists A. H. Walker and G. O. Hoffman. A total of 10,734 ranch operations in 225 counties received assistance during the past year on range management problems.

Trunkload of Beauty

THERE'S MORE ROOM in the trunk of the 1957 Dodge, as these five lovelies from the water sports troupe at Cypress Gardens, Fla., demonstrate. It's their way of showing that the luggage compartment will hold a lot of anything. The trunk of the 1957 Dodge is more than six feet wide, which means you can put more luggage in it, too. That's Buck Baker, famous auto race driver, standing alongside the trunkload of beauty.

Yoemen Lose Second District Game To Killeen By 89-46 Score

Yoemen thinly clads last Friday night were low men on the totem pole as they lost to a Killeen five by a score of 8-46 during their second district game of the season.

Killeen began drawing ahead of the local squad from the opening gun and held the lead throughout the game. However, the Yoemen racked up more tallies during the final period during which they scored 20 points as compared to 14 by the host team. During this period, the Killeen coach played four of his relief string.

High point man during the fame was Killeen's Ledbetter with 23 points. Second place scorer and high man for the Cameron five was Ray Green with 18 points.

The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council says it is not too late to get a few resolutions made covering safety during the coming year. "Don't," they say, "let a crippling or fatal accident spoil 1957 on your farm." Most accidents can be prevented and the best preventitive is the use of common sense in all farm operations.

Registrants Get Advise On Draft

"Congress hereby declares that an adequate armed strength must be achieved and maintained to insure the security of this Nation.

"The Congress further declares that in a free society the obligations and privileges of serving in the armed forces and the reserve components there of should be shared generally, in accordance with a system which is fair and just, and which is consistent with the maintenance of an effective national economy."

So begins the Universal Military Training and Service Act. This places on the shoulders of Local Boards a dual responsibility...to provide the necessary number of men to maintain our military strength, but at the same time to retain those qualified young men necessary to maintain proper balance in the industrial, agricultural and social life of our nation.

While the local board must classify young men in accordance with Selective Service Regulations, not all of the responsibility lies with the board. The young men have a decided responsibility too, and that is to keep the board informed of their activities, because it is only from this information in the file of each individual registrant that the board can base its decisions.

If a young man fails to keep the board informed, he is not only breaking the law, but making it impossible for the board to classify him properly.

Registrants may secure advice directly from the local board office or from the five advisors who have been appointed throughout Milam County. They are Joe Moore of Gause, Jim Eads of Rockdale, H. B. McClellan of Cameron, E. A. Camp of Rockdale and Judge Ed Gunn of Cameron.

Information in the file of registrants is confidential and may not be revealed to anyone but those persons specified in Selective Service regulations without the written consent of the registrant. The classification record is open to the public in the local board office during office hours and may be examined by anyone. This record contains the name of every registrant, his selective service number and birthday, classification actions, dates forwarded for examination and induction and results of each and other information.
